TV TALK

CBC plans for television this summer are basically retention of the most popular of the current shows and replacement of the weak ones with shows from Canadian centres outside Toronto.

Heading the list of new material is a weekly, half-hour drama series from Vancouver, using local talent; a 30-minute variety show from Winnipeg; an eight-week series of country-style music by Don Messer's group; a half-hour person-to-person type interview show by Ross McLean of Close-Up and a second season of Playhouse U.K.

"How's YOUR reception?"

The Great Movies series is continuing and films due to be shown on this program include such winners as "High Noon" with Gary Cooper and Grace Kelly; "Inspector-General" with Danny Kaye; "Rope," directed by Alfred Hitchcock and starring James Stewart and "The Third Man" with Orson Welles.

"High Noon" is due to start off the new series April 18, but this date is tentative, depending on the outcome of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Playhouse U.K. will feature English TV dramas, running between 60 and 90 minutes each. It will replace the GM Presents program now seen on this coast.

The new Ross McLean program will replace Fighting Words for the summer and the Winnipeg variety show will be seen at 9.30 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning June 9. A series of 12 programs on physics will start July 7 at 10.30 p.m.
